Drowning can occur quickly and quietly during periods of inadequate supervision.

Provide attentive, and constant supervision of young children when they are in or around any body of water. Children under age 5 should always wear a life jacket. Do not use drugs or alcohol.

www.hiprc.org/drowning-prevention/