Recognize an opioid overdose.

The person cannot be woken up. Slow or no breathing. Gurgling, gasping, or snoring. Clammy, cool skin. Blue or gray lips or nails. Vomiting.

If you suspect an overdose, call 911 immediately.

www.hiprc.org/opioids/