"Falls are the leading cause of injury in older adults. Talking with your doctor, getting your eyes checked, removing tripping hazards at home, and exercising regularly can all help reduce the risk of falling."

Kushang V. Patel, PhD, MPH
HIPRC Research Core Director
Research Associate Professor, Department of Anesthesiology and Pain Medicine Adjunct, Gerontology and Geriatric Medicine

www.hiprc.org/fall-prevention